To whom it may concern,

I am delighted to recommend Laurence Jin to your esteemed program for advanced studies.

As a Portfolio Manager at Dymon Asia Capital (HK) Ltd, I have had the privilege of observing Laurence's exemplary performance during his four-month internship that began in August. His dedication to work, solid professional skills, and strong thirst for knowledge distinctly set him apart from his peers.

Laurence demonstrates exceptional programming skills, particularly in Python. He adeptly builds robust and reliable applications for tasks such as web scraping, big data processing, and data visualization. His automated processes have consistently shown precision and dependability. Additionally, his proficiency in developing dedicated SQL Server databases for various projects is commendable, with each database characterized by minimal redundancy and high accuracy and information integrity. His meticulous and timely task execution has been instrumental in enhancing my investment decision-making process.

Moreover, Laurence's profound passion for financial markets is noteworthy. His unquenchable curiosity for innovative techniques and quick adaptability to new concepts distinguish him as an exceptional talent. His unique market insights and engaging discussions about the current financial news with me have been both enjoyable and enlightening.

In summary, Laurence is a young professional characterized by his efficiency, robust programming capabilities, and enthusiasm for embracing new challenges. I am confident that he will excel and embody the qualities your program values. Should you need any additional information or assistance, please do not hesitate to contact me. I am more than happy to provide further support.

Yours sincerely,
